Idea of law relevance in theoretical and law methodology of P.I. Novgorodtsev and N.M. Korkunov

N.E. Pegovaya

The relevant problem of Russian jurisprudence of the second half of XIX — early XX century is the problem law research methodology. The idea of the law relevance in this period was the characteristic feature. N.M. Korkunov considers the problem of the origin of law, as a key for the Law, he decided it on the basis of recognition as a major factor of the subjective-psychological mechanisms of social consciousness. P.I. Novgorodtsev comprehends the idea of the historical evolution of the values of the rule of law and justifies the analysis of the real emerging relationships and the analysis of the philosophical and legal doctrines.
