Problems of youth socialization in the era of change

A. Arakelyan

An urgent problem in modern society is considered: the socialization of youth and its impact on the future of Russia. It describes the process of socialization of adolescents at various stages of life and emphasizes the successful adaptation of youth to social life, which depends on their participation in social movements and organizations. The importance of the relationship between the older and younger generations is noted, attention is drawn to the fact that young people face new challenges that require new methods and approaches to socialization. The need to develop an innovative approach to the socialization of youth is emphasized.
